

The screenshot shows a web browser window with two stacked pages. The top page, titled "Página Principal", has a red sidebar on the left containing three links: "Secundaria", "Documento", and "Google". The main content area is currently empty. The bottom page, titled "Página Secundaria", has a dark header bar with the title in red. Below it is a light gray footer bar containing four links: "Página Principal", "Descargar fichero", "Correo electrónico" (which is highlighted in red), and "Página Youtube".
